

DEERFIELD PLACE

Deerfield Place

Resulting from a joint venture between The Sembler Company and Devin Properties, Deerfield Place, scheduled for completion during the first quarter of 2009, is located along the GA-400 corridor in Milton, Georgia, an attractive suburb of Atlanta. Upon completion, a variety of tenants will occupy 441,000 square feet of retail space, anchored by SuperTarget, Kohls, Staples and PETCO, as well as other national and local brands, giving the development a familiar appeal among the consumers and community. The architectural elements and hardscape designs suggest luxury through intricate details and heavily landscaped grounds.

